Reflections from the Principal's Desk

ABHILASHA SHARMA
Principal

Aristotle once said, "Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all." As we impart education to match the advancement in technology and globalisation, we march our students ahead with an ethos of moral values. We take pride in ourselves for being able to help the students grow and develop as sensitive and responsible citizens of the future. Fortunately, we have a committed and supportive management, dedicated teachers as well as caring and cooperative parents, which blend harmoniously to create a child-centric learning abode here at TSS.

With warm wishes and God's blessings, I would like to express my deep gratitude to all of them.

*'Stand upright. Fight with might.
Create the path to give success a flight'.*

Teacher Student RELATIONSHIP

Teachers understand every student's potential, learning speed, interests, etc., guide them and provide feedback to help them to improve themselves. One of the strongest ways through which teachers can connect with students is by making them feel valued and respected. When students feel that their teachers care about them, want what's best for them and have confidence in their abilities, it can be powerful enough to move mountains.
